Testimonials

Tima connects with her audience in a way I haven't seen before. By applying her unique ideology to personal branding she can relate to everyone in the room and everyone is quickly attracted to her. I personally loved her knowledge on using social media as not just a way of showing people what you're up to but a way of showing them the true you. I'll always be tuning into Tima and her amazing content. Thanks again Tima.

George Giannakis, New Homes, Design Division

Tima is a repeat speaker at Bayside Women in Business #BWIBMelb and each time has given a professional and valued packed presentation. With the limited time our speakers have Tima is able to share golden nuggets that allow our members to leave with actionable information. Tima has the ability to connect with the audience and has great stage presence. I highly recommend Tima as a keynote speaker.

Dhea Bartlett, Executive at Send Out Cards

I saw Tima speak at a LinkedIn plus event. Tima has a remarkable, powerful yet welcoming on stage presence that I have not come across. Her approach is considered and words spoken with such thoughtfulness and consideration. Her advice was just solid gold and came out of a place of experience and practice. I highly recommend Tima as an engaging speaker that will add immense value to your audience.

Elinor Moshe, Founder of The Construction Coach

I've had the pleasure to work with Tima twice now and have been amazed by her calming nature. Her ability to connect through her knowledge of business and people skills amazed me. Her cut through with my team was amazing and the engagement with them was two way and such a great surprise. Following our last training session the implementation by my team has been much higher than expected and is delivering results. I can not recommend Tima enough as an expert speaker, trainer, mentor and coach on not only all things LinkedIn, but much wider, customer contact, negotiation skills, the list goes on.

If you want an amazing speaker without all the ra-ra, who will instantly connect with the audience, you've found one of the best. Thanks for your time Tima. I cannot wait to engage with you again soon.
